

Presented by

© <https://mytripnavi.com/>

Le Saloon

1333 St Catherine St E , Montreal, Canada

Nearest station: Beaudry

Bars

Popular gay bistro in Montreal's gay village. This place is something of an institution. It's great for people watching - you'll see a lot of hot Montrealer guys. You can choose from a wide variety of dishes including local and international cuisine. You can tuck into a filling burger or fish and chips; if you're watching the calories then there a plenty of lighter options. There's also a good choice for vegetarians. Happy hour takes place between 16:00 - 19:00 and invariably draws a diverse crowd. This resto-bar covers all your needs. You can dine here like you're in a restaurant or make a night of it at the bar. You could well find yourself doing both.

Features: Bar Restaurant

Bar Renard

1272 St Catherine St, Montreal, Canada

Nearest station: Beaudry

Bars

This classy cocktail bar is located on St. Catherine Street, right in the heart of Montreal's gay village. It's right by Beaudry metro station, so it's a great spot if you simply cannot wait for that martini. Bar Renard offers a good selection of artisan beers. A food bar menu is available if you get pecking, but this is really a place to drink rather than eat. The chic decor and friendly atmosphere make for a charming experience. This is a good place to start your night out. One of the standout gay bars in Montreal.

Features: Bar

District Video Lounge

1365 Rue Sainte-Catherine Est, Montréal, Quebec H2L 2H7, Canada, Montreal, Canada

Nearest station: Beaudry

Bars

A lounge bar in the centre of Montreal's gay village that plays music videos. You can request a track from the bar or on their website. Make sure you try the bar's signature Butterscotch Colada. The venue also has gender-neutral bathrooms.

Features: Bar

Cabaret Mado

1115 St Catherine St E , Montreal, Canada

Nearest station: Beaudry

Bars

Cabaret Mado is an iconic Montreal drag bar located on St Catherine. Presided over by the Drag Queen Mado Lamotte herself, she hosts a variety of drag performers and interacts with the crowd in French. If she knows there are tourists in the crowd she'll occasionally switch to English. Inspired by the decadent Weimar entertainments of the 1920s, this gender-bending den of ill repute is guaranteed to be a good night out. Check the website to see who's performing - the lineup changes regularly.

Features: Bar Cabaret drag

Taverne Normandie

1295 Amherst Street, Montreal, Canada

Nearest station: Beaudry

Bars

Taverne Normandie sits just off the corner of the main strip of Montreal's gay village. It's one of the oldest gay bars in town. It has an outdoor seating area for those elusive sunny days. If you're feeling brave you can try your hand at the karaoke. Celebrities have been known to pop in for impromptu performances.

Features: Bar Sunny terrace

Le Date

1218 St Catherine St E, Montreal, Canada

Nearest station: De Castelnau

Bars

Club Date is a karaoke bar on St Catherine Street. Here you'll find a mixed crowd having their Canadian Idol moment. From the ridiculous to the sublime and back to the ridiculous, you're likely to have fun here - you may even take to the microphone. If you enjoy the joys and sorrows of karaoke, then this bar is a good bet. The decor may be a little faded, but when you hear someone drunkenly warbling their way through Whitney you're guaranteed to crack a smile.

Features: Karaoke

Stock Bar

1171 Saint Catherine Street East,
Montreal, Canada

Bars

Stock Bar is a male strip club in Montreal's gay village featuring over 60 muscular hunks dancing for your pleasure. Stock is a well-established name in the Montreal gay scene. It briefly closed in early 2023 for renovations but has since reopened.

The club is well-known for having the best dancers in town. With so many dancers onstage, there's somebody to suit everybody's tastes. Get here quickly and grab a stage-side seat for a great view, but don't worry; plenty of other seats are available too if you come later. The bar is fairly affordable, and Stock Bar is located on the main strip in the gay village, right in the heart of the action. A trip here would be a great start to your evening, or maybe you'll want to stay all night. The crowd is often mostly women, but gay men are always welcome to join in on the fun.

Features: Dancing Live shows Strip bar

Le Campus

1111 St Catherine Street East, Montreal,
Canada

Bars

Campus, a strip bar in the core of Montreal's gay village, offers a variety of muscular hunks and twinkles dancing for your pleasure. Campus is one of the oldest and most famous strip bars in town, with a long-standing reputation of hot dancers onstage. The bar is affordable and the stage is very close to the seating area, so you can get right up close to the action! This strip bar is aimed at gay men and straight women predominantly, so it's a great night out if you're looking for something fun.

Features: Bar Cocktails drag Karaoke

Bar Le Cocktail

1669 St Catherine Street East, Montreal, Montreal, Canada

Bars

Bar Le Cocktail is a drag and cocktail bar located in the heart of Montreal's gay village. It's a great place to start the night with happy hour from 5-8 p.m. serving whisky and martinis, and drag shows from Wednesday to Sunday. But if you want to carry on here, the bar also offers karaoke every night, with drag hostesses and DJs until late. Cocktail lovers will adore the wide range of exciting drinks at affordable prices, and the cozy lounge atmosphere makes it a great bar to chat with friends. Bar Le Cocktail's crowd is mixed but mainly is aimed at 30 and 40-somethings looking for a quirky night out.

Features: Bar Dancing Karaoke Live music Music

Rocky

1673 Rue Sainte-Catherine Est, Montréal, Quebec H2L 2J5, Canada, Montreal, Canada

Bars

Rocky, a cozy neighborhood bar in Montreal, attracts a mature crowd with its laid-back atmosphere. Featuring adult films on TVs and offering affordable drinks, it's a great spot for reconnecting with old friends or making new ones. Known for its friendly locals, unpretentious vibe, and great staff, it's a hidden gem in Montreal's gay village.

Features: Bar Music

Bar Taboo

1950 Boulevard De Maisonneuve Est, Montréal, Quebec H2K 2C8, Canada, Montreal, Canada

Bars

Bar Taboo, a charming spot in Montreal's gay village, invites you to unwind with a drink and enjoy private dances. Known for its cute dancers, this bar offers a unique and pleasant experience where guests can mingle around the pool table or at the bar, open till 3 am every night.

Features: strip club

Notre Dame des Quilles

32 Rue Beaubien E, Montreal, Canada

Bars

Notre Dame des Quilles is a popular Montreal gay bar, catering mainly to the city's lesbian crowd. Known as the original watering hole for gay women in Montreal, Notre Dame des Quilles now welcomes diverse crowds from across the region. Inside you'll find friendly bar staff waiting to serve you affordable drinks surrounded by bowling alley-style decor. Look out for this gay bar's special theme nights, including Glitter Bomb, weekend dance parties, and karaoke.

Features: Cabaret drag

Bar Le Ritz PDB

179 Rue Jean-Talon O, Montreal, Canada

Bars

Bar Le Ritz PDB is not a gay bar but it hosts some gay events. It's good to check out if you're into indie music. There are regular live gigs and DJ sets. It's an intimate space so you'll be fairly up close and personal with the whoever's playing. Bar Le Ritz PDB is located between the Mile-X district and Little Italy. Check their Facebook for more info about upcoming events.

Café Cléopatra

1230 St Laurent Blvd, Montreal, Canada

Bars

Café Cléopatra is an old school strip club in Montreal's red light district. It has survived the encroaching gentrification of the local area. Upstairs in the cabaret you'll find nightly drag shows, including performances by local drag houses.

The Wiggle Room

3874 St Laurent Blvd, Montreal, Canada

Bars

The latest addition to Montreal's growing cabaret scene, The Wiggle Room is located on the buzzing St. Laurent Boulevard, just across the road from Schwartz's. This den of hedonism is known as "Montreal's hardened artery." You'll find bourbon, boobs and butts - throw in a bit of gender-bending and you have yourself a satisfying evening. Check their website to see the lineup.

Club Unity

1171 St Catherine St E, Montreal, Canada

Nearest station: Beaudry

Dance Clubs

Club Unity is the biggest gay bar in Montreal, and it's located in the heart of the gay village. There are three bars as well as a rooftop. The drinks are relatively cheap and multiple floors with different types of music playing. This is a place where you can have a lot of fun and dance like crazy. The people here are laid back and friendly. This is the must-see gay club if you're in Montreal. If you show up late on a busy night you may have to queue.

Features: Bar Dancing Music

Complexe Sky

1478 St Catherine St E, Montreal, Canada

Dance Clubs

This bar and gay club complex is the biggest in Montreal, and a real staple in the gay village. The club contains a downstairs pub, 2 restaurants, 4 rooms of music, a roof terrace, hot tub and even a spa! Sky has a longstanding reputation in the gay village for being a powerhouse on the gay scene, and Friday and Saturdays nights here are extremely popular. The club hosts weekly events on these nights but is also open 7 days a week. In the day, Sky functions as a bar and eatery but transforms into a gay superclub when the sun goes down, with jaw-dropping drag shows and great DJs. Music genres include pop, latino and house. A visit to Montreal wouldn't be complete without a weekend in Sky.

Features: Bar Club Jacuzzi Music Pub Restaurant Spa

Stereo Bar

865 St Catherine Street East, Montreal, Canada

Dance Clubs

Stereo is a secretive dance techno club located in Montreal's gay village. The club insists on no cameras, no bottle service and no bad attitude, as the venue has a true respect for the DJs they host. If you're interested in great music from world-renowned DJs, Stereo is the night for you. Events are often ticketed so check the website for upcoming events before you arrive, as the club is very popular and often sells out.

Features: Dancing Music Techno

Club Bolo

2093 Visitation St, Montreal, Canada

Dance Clubs

Club Bolo is an LGBT country and line-dancing club located on the edge of Montreal's gay village, offering a fun night out for an older crowd. The experts throw a 'practice parade on Friday evenings and the club is then open on Friday nights from 9pm-midnight for anyone and everyone; a great place to practice your box-step. Bolo also hosts many shows special events on particular holidays, so keep a look out for their weekly schedule as it's sure to be a fun and different evening.

Features: Dancing Live shows Music

MPU @ Le Belmont

4483 St Laurent Blvd, Montreal, Canada

Dance Clubs

MPU is a long-running gay dance party that takes place at Le Belmont. They often have themed parties, drag performances and even host Drag Race alumni. It's worth checking out if you want to meet the local scene queens. Dressing up and/or shirtlessness is encouraged.

Features: gay dance party

Aigle Noir

1315 St Catherine St , Montreal, Canada

Nearest station: Beaudry

Cruise Clubs

Aigle Noir (Black Eagle) is a leather bar based in Montreal's Gay Village. If you're into daddy or bear types - and leather! - you'll do well here. The bar has a terrace that can get busy on weekends. The leather theme isn't imposed as strictly as in other fetish bars. Here you'll find a mixed crowd, hot barmen and a good selection of leather-clad guys with tattoos, boots and other butch accoutrements. You'll find plenty of appropriately kinky pictures and objets d'art scattered around. There are two bars - if you're feeling cruise-y the one at the back is your best bet. As the night progresses this can become quite a pickup joint.

Features: Bar Dancing fetish Music

Stud Bar

1812 St Catherine St E, Montreal, Canada

Cruise Clubs

Stud Bar is a men-only dance bar in the centre of the Gay Village of Montreal. Their motto, 'A bar for men, where men like men', well represents this venue. Here you'll find a lot of leather-clad bears and hunks with a masculine vibe, so if you're looking for testosterone, this is the place to be! Stud Bar offers drinks all week, with weekly pool tournaments and popular house DJs during the busy weekends. As well as a few dark corners, the bar boasts topless bartenders across two bars and a dance floor. This bar opens until late every night, so be sure to get down to experience one of the last true gay bars in Montreal.

Features: Bar Leather Men-only Music

Sauna G.I. Joe

1166 St Catherine St E , Montreal, Canada

Nearest station: Beaudry

Saunas

Large gay sauna in Montreal. Spread over three floors you'll find private rooms you can rent. There are various public play areas with slings, hot tubs, glory holes, a sauna, steam room and TV lounge. This place can get busy and you'll find plenty of cruising action. There's a smoking area on the rooftop - you will see other activities going on, too. If you're looking for some action in the gay village this place is a good option.

Features: Cabins Cruising Dark Room fetish slings

Sauna Centre-Ville

1465 St Catherine Street East, Montreal, Canada

Nearest station: Sherbrooke

Saunas

Sauna Centre-Ville is the most popular sauna in Montreal and is located right in the middle of the gay village. The sauna offers many single, double and deluxe rooms and many more amenities such as a whirlpool, a dry sauna, high speed internet and much more. There are 60 rooms over 2 levels so you'll definitely meet someone you like here. The bar boasts beefy bartenders, but they're not the only ones that frequent this sauna. It's a great place to meet people of all tribes. This sauna often gets busier after around 9pm as it is in the heart of the village and is a great spot for students, due to a great 50% discount.

Features: Double rooms Internet Access Single rooms Steam room Student discount

Bain Colonial Bath

3963 Colonial Ave, Montreal, Canada

Saunas

Bain Colonial is a characterful sauna just outside the Montreal's gay village, next to the Sherbrooke metro station. This sauna boasts the only natural stone steam system in the city, and also has an impressive 100 year reputation, the oldest bathhouse on the continent. Services include massages, steam rooms, whirlpools, and private rooms. Students can also benefit from a 50% discount on lockers.

Features: Cabins Massage Sauna Spa Steam room

Sauna Oasis

1390 St Catherine St E, Montreal, Canada

Saunas

The most popular gay sauna in Montreal. Here you can cruise through the steam room, sauna and play area or situate yourself in one of the glory holes. You can also chill and watch XX movies. If you're peckish, you can grab a sandwich at the snack bar. This is a large sauna with action 24 hours a day.

Features: Bar Relaxing Cabins Sauna Steam room

Montréal Burlesque

Walking Tour

Taverne Midway, 1219 Boul St-Laurent, Montreal, Canada

Tours

Discover the decadent history of Montreal with a burlesque-queen guide. You'll explore the historic red light district and learn about its heyday when it was riddled with brothels, gambling dens and burlesque halls.

The tour departs at 8:30 PM from Taverne Midway and ends 1.5 hours later at Taverne Midway. Welcome to burlesque.

Features: history tour

Ultimate Montreal

Afternoon Tour - English

Montreal, Canada

Tours

See the highlights of Montreal on a 4-hour city tour. Hotel pickup can be arranged. The tour includes a river cruise stop at Mount Royal, a cruise along the St. Lawrence River and a trip to Notre Dame Cathedral in Old Montreal.

This is an intimate tour with a maximum of seven people. It departs at 3:00 PM.

Features:history tour